"In this vibrant West London location guests staying at this superb Chelsea townhouse with private garden will enjoy the best London has to offer: exciting gourmet restaurants, pavement cafes, designer boutiques, art and culture trails, botanic gardens, riverside walks and the proximity to all the major historical sites and attractions".

This elegant Victorian townhouse is built over 4 floors and accommodates 6 guests in 3 individually appointed bedrooms. The interior is classy and decorated with artwork and boasts some period features including a marble fireplace and a claw-foot bath tub. The private garden is adorned with stone urns - an exquisite spot in which to enjoy a summer babrcue or your morning breakfast among the lush vegetation. As soon as you step out of the house you are at the heart of a very vibrant neighbourhood surrounded by impressive period houses, fine restaurants and superb high-end shops.
