"From the top floor of an elegant building, this uber luxury contemporary penthouse commands striking views over the iconic London skyline - only steps away from the British Museum and an array of excellent restaurants and trendy bars in Fitzrovia".

The huge terrace is the main highlight of this stunning top floor apartment in the heart of London, which is thoughtfully furnished with table and chairs to enjoy an aperitif or a lazy morning breakfast watching the world go by. The three luxurious bedrooms and the generous open plan living space are arranged all on one level in a 5-floor building equipped with lift. Having Tottenham Court tube station within a 6-minute walk means you are ideally placed to explore the entire city of London in all directions covered by the main underground lines. Bloomsbury, Soho, Covent Garden, Marylebone and Fitzrovia are all within a short walking distance from this exclusive apartment.
