"Situated in the north-east corner of Corfu, this spectacular villa (for 8 adults and 4 children) with pool, gym and shared tennis court offers its guests an authentic Greek island's experience in a scenic setting renowned for its fauna and flora, with breath-taking views over the Ionian Sea which can be directly accessed from the villa's garden and close proximity to tavernas, water sports and much more!"

This elegant seafront villa welcomes 8 adults and 4 children in 5 individually appointed, en suite bedrooms. Here you will find a tranquil and relaxing atmosphere, rare birds, fascinating wildlife and crystal clear, turquoise water. As well as the villa's own superb facilities which include an infinity pool with panoramic sea views, a private gym and cinema room, guests are also welcome to use the tennis court and the jetty shared with other nearby villas. There are any number of professionals on hand to attend to guests' requirements, whether it be a massage, a tennis or yoga lesson, a music lesson on a traditional instrument for example.

Island hopping is one of Greece's main activities. Boats from smaller Ribs to Sunseekers to large luxury yachts with an experienced captain, are available for hire and can be delivered to the shared jetty at the villa. It is possible to do the RYA boat licence training course. The Ionian Sea with its mild winds, crystal clear blue waters and predictable weather patterns is wonderful for sailing. Lasers and 'P' class can be rented locally. Other water sports either for beginners or for those looking to master advanced techniques, are available – windsurfing, water skiing, wakeboarding, parasailing, jet skiing, banana and donut rides, fishing trips and scuba diving.
