"Just minutes away from the Adriatic coast, plunged in six acres of olive groves, this traditional masseria is a splendid example of Apulian country home, built in solid stone and encompassing six elegant en suite bedrooms, courtyards, terraces, gardens and a private infinity pool".

Recently refurbished and transformed into a characterful private villa, this property is equipped with the latest comforts and features to accommodate 12 guests in 6 delightful bedroom suites. Vaulted ceilings, stone walls, original fireplaces, archways all contribute to recreate the enchanting atmosphere of this unique place. Panoramic sea views complement this idyllic rural landscape reminding guests of the proximity of the sea. For a hassle-free holiday guests can request the additional services of the villa chef to prepare their meals with tasty local ingredients. The area is dotted with quaint rural villages, ancient archaeological sites and beautiful beaches along the Adriatic coast. The accommodation for 12 guests is arranged over separate units within the walls of this fortress-like property.
