"Villa Pollenca not only meets the highest standards of comfort and convenience, but also enjoys one of the most desirable locations on the Island of Mallorca - a real gem!"

With so many of the key ingredients for a carefree holiday on offer, this impressive property appeals to all ages - selected highlights including a bright, spacious interior, grand central staircase and a large private swimming pool surrounded by sun-trap sun terrace. With two restaurants, a minimarket and the start of one of Mallorca's longest, family-friendly sandy beaches all within walking distance you could, if you wish, just arrive, unpack... and forget about the car keys!

An agreeable sense of space and style characterises the living accommodation where all rooms are well proportioned and appealingly decorated in a simple yet striking colour scheme. A devotee of local art, Francesca - the property owner - has adorned the walls with eye-catching pictures of island life plus a smattering of individual artifacts collected on her personal travels. Some are obvious in their detail, others more abstract, but all combine to create a most welcoming ambience. Furnishings are predominantly modern with a subtle classical twist that sees plump sofas standing alongside chunky polished wood coffee tables, ornate light fittings overhead, cooling tiles underfoot, potted palms and lace voiles drawing the eye in the attractive sitting room.

There are, in fact, several dedicated sitting areas inside and out, allowing members of larger parties or sharing families the opportunity to enjoy their own individual relaxation spot whilst still remaining fully in tune with general holiday activity! Bordered by ample sun terracing, a covered dining/barbecue area and a convenient cloakroom, the good-sized private swimming pool has wide Roman steps to one side, a feature sure to be appreciated by non-swimmers and younger family members in particular.
