"Set in a tranquil, tree-lined street of Wandsworth this substantial property with immaculate gardens combines classic elegance with contemporary design to welcome up to 10 guests in one of London's most sought after suburban areas just 15 minutes by train from the vibrant city centre".

The spacious living area is open plan and tall floor-to-ceiling patio doors open up onto the terrace, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor space. Guests will have plenty of room for gathering socially, to enjoy meals together in the fabulous contemporary kitchen/ dining area or sip an aperitive on the terrace. On the opposite side on the ground floor a cosy, traditionally styled living room is the perfect corner in which to unwind and relax after dinner. This elegant property offers visitors the chance to live like the locals, choose from a range of restaurants, pubs and coffee shops or take stroll or a jog in the Common nearby but also easily reach the centre of London in minutes.
