This splendid, modern Corsican villa is ideal for a family or a small group looking for that special getaway.

As you sit on the decked terrace, or float in the private infinity pool - perhaps with a glass of white in hand - the stunning, far-reaching views will take your breath away. It is also a testament to the exceptional location, with surrounding forestry and close access to the famous Corsican beaches.

Step inside from the terrace and you will find a villa which has been carefully designed with your comfort and convenience in mind. Indeed, the kitchen in particular has the most up-to-date gadgets, which is perhaps not surprising as the villa is owned by a chef. The spacious, open-plan nature of the interior, with immediate access to the outdoor terrace, make this an excellent villa for easy indoor-outdoor living.

The beaches of Saint Cyprien and Palombaggia are within easy reach, as is Porto Vecchio, famed for its glorious harbour and excellent restaurants. For something completely different, you are within touching distance of Ospedale forest - a wonderful forest of pine and beech trees, with plenty of paths for hikers.
