A few steps from Platis Gialos beach, on an elevated position, sits this attractive newly built seaside villa with pool and views over the bay and the Aegean sea: a picture postcard of Mykonos pure bliss.

This villa ticks all the boxes when it comes to the perfect combination of location, style, comfort and quality, with the beach of Agia Anna/ Paranga within walking distance and reachable via an unpaved path. The outdoor areas all face towards the sea, making the most of the location and allowing guests to enjoy the space in all comfort. The stylish terrace gradually descends into the villa's private pool, positioned to the front of the property. An ample pergola covers the outdoor dining and lounge area while a captivating bar/bbq area has been conceived just behind this space to complete a combination that gives options for any time of the day.
