"The views over the Aegean seascape and the southern coast of Mykonos are simply majestic and worth enjoying from the pool, the dining terrace or the rooms of this exquisite villa. Perfect for families or friends who appreciate tranquility but like to be within easy access of the beach - just 250 metres away - and all the main attractions of the island".

The interiors of this villa are airy, spacious and minimal in design yet inspired by the Greek island tradition with windows offering generous views to the sea. Based in the local traditional architecture, the villa is a part stone - part Cycladic cubism structure of impeccable style. Its three delightful bedrooms and a guest house can accommodate 8 adults and 1 child in luxurious comfort.
