Tucked into a hillside near Tripiti, this stylish villa overlooks the Aegean Sea and surrounding islands. Designed for relaxed summer living, it features a sun-drenched pool terrace, inviting outdoor spaces, five comfortable bedrooms and bright, thoughtfully designed interiors. It's a welcoming base for slow, carefree days on Paros.

Villa Asimi is part of a 2-villa complex and blends traditional timeless Aegean character with relaxed modern living and offers a pleasant retreat surrounded by olive trees and native plants. The interiors are cool and calming, with soft greys, white walls, and natural wood details, creating a welcoming and understated atmosphere. Outdoors, the spacious terrace invites lazy mornings, poolside lounging and summer barbecues with family or friends.

Nearby is the secluded beach cove of Tripiti, while the sandy shores of Faragas with its clear waters and beach bars are only a few minutes by car. The nearby village of Alikí offers a taste of local life, with traditional tavernas, cafés by the sea and a laid-back, friendly vibe. Whether you're in the mood to explore or simply unwind, this Paros villa is a great base for enjoying the island at your own pace.
