"This majestic property enjoys a prominent lakefront position on Lake Garda's west bank - the Lombardy side - and affords some spectacular views over the lake and the Alps all around it - this is the best way to enjoy a luxury holiday, Italian style, on Italy's largest Alpine lake".

Situated within a large private estate comprising another villa of similar standing, Regina del Garda is surrounded by 10 hectares of olive groves and was designed in the 1930' by a renowned Italian architect. Whilst maintaining its original charm and period features, the property has been brought up-to-date with all modern luxury comforts such as air conditioning, a heated pool, a Jacuzzi hot tub and gym, to name but a few. Should you ever wish to leave this blissful retreat, the lake banks are dotted with an array of small towns and picturesque villages, as well as historical sites and period villas. The elegant town of Salò with its restaurants, boutiques and pier is just a short drive from the villa and Gardone Riviera, home to one of Italy's most celebrate poets is even closer and its museum well worth a visit. Sirmione ancient Roman spa town is at the southernmost tip of the lake, and with Verona and Venice could make a lovely day trip's destination during your holiday on Lake Garda.
