Nestling on the shore of Lake Como, opposite the renowned Villa Balbianello and just 12 minutes' drive from Bellagio, this classic Italian villa is perfectly placed to explore this enchanting lake providing fabulous views; with the pebble beach on your doorstep and the village of Lezzeno just a stroll away, this property is ideal for your Italian lakeside holiday.

This impressive, classic-style family villa is a little gem on Lake Como. Its bright yellow façade and leafy garden reminds of renowned Villa Balbianello – which forms part of the villa's panoramic views. Living life 'al fresco' is what Italy is all about, and what better place than this villa's manicured gardens, furnished covered terrace and pebble beach? With the village centre of Lezzeno just a short stroll away, you are never far from a great cappuccino, a meal of fresh lake fish or wood-fired pizza and the chance to rub shoulders with the Lake Como locals. The area's quaint villages and places of interest are all within easy reach by car or public boat from the nearby pier. The accommodation of this property is arranged over three floors, with each room, terrace and balcony designed to maximise the stunning lake view.
