A traditional Tuscan farmhouse with a contemporary twist, close to Florence, Lucca, San Gimignano and Cinque Terre.

A 200 square metres traditional Tuscan farmhouse with a contemporary-glam twist. Inside, colourful patterns and designer furnishings will surely spark a conversation or two during dinner parties while exposed-wood beams and wood-burning fireplaces continue the luxurious traditional style.

Outside, it's like taking a step back in time: 3 acres of grounds to call your own. Catch up some reading beneath shady pergolas or work on your tan by the swimming pool. In the afternoon, fire up the pizza oven and grill something fresh from a local market. At dinner, the fully-equipped kitchen is sure to inspire your inner chef. Or, you could bring in a private chef to create a menu of delicious Italian cuisine. After dinner, take a bottle of wine out and sit on the pool edge while the sun sets over the rolling hills.

This region of Tuscany offers countless opportunities to experience the long and diverse local history, starting from the bespoke Lucca, with the best preserved Amphitheatre in the Roman world, to Pisa, San Miniato and Montecatini Terme all between a 20 to a 30 mins drive away. Florence, San Gimignano, and Cinque Terre - five mirage-like villages built on a series of shores, also makes a fabulous historical site to visit during your stay- are all approx a 1 hour drive away. Pistoia, Volterra, Siena, Bolgheri, Viareggio, Forte dei Marmi, Garfagnana, Valdinievole and the Versilia Coast are all in an endless distance.
