Beautifully nestled amongst the hills of Siena, this charming traditional style property with private pool affords splendid views over the Tuscan countryside.

This small villa borders the garden of its sister property but has its own private entrance and pool. Both villas are situated at the heart of the quaint village of San Giovanni d'Asso famous for its enchanting Medieval castle, housing the Truffle Museum, and its ancient church dating back to the XI century. Guests can easily walk to shops, two restaurants, a coffee bar and the weekly market in the village.
