Just a few steps from a gorgeous beach, this is a former beekeepers cottage now restored to a high level, in a contemporary & modern style. Also within walking distance of the charming waterside village of Ferragudo and its seafood restaurants.

Villa Ferragudo is a stunning and well-appointed villa with views towards the ocean and over the Arado river, with spectacular sunsets towards Sagres.

Compact but well equipped with beach-chic style interiors, everything is on one level. There are three bedrooms and a lovely pool area from where one can watch the passing yachts and fishing boats, whilst casually turning the catch of the day on the barbecue behind you. There is a working fireplace, plus air conditioning in bedrooms.

This is a perfect location if you like a good stroll. One can walk along the beach to Ferragudo (less than 1 km away) and either buy dinner from one of the fresh fish shops or have dinner in one of the restaurants. One can take a boat trip from nearby Portimao to Silves for lunch and back, or why not head into the Monchique mountains for a walk and try local speciality chicken Piri Piri? Portimao is also a great 'foodie' stop off and is host to an annual sardine festival of great note. For history and stunning scenery, we suggest a day trip to Sagres itself. The beach is a gentle stroll from the villa (approx 50 m). Golf is within 15-20 mins and tennis at Carvoeiro in five minutes drive. Faro airport is under an hour away.
